The 1st Local Consensus Building Meeting in the Region of Western Greece took place on January 11th, 2010 at the ISI premises in the Patras Science Park Building.

The participants in the meeting comprise the two I3E project partners from the Region of Western Greece, namely Lead Partner Industrial Systems Institute and the Regional Development Fund of the Region of Western Greece, the Regional Innovation Pole of the Region of Western Greece, the Regional Technology Platform of the Region of Western Greece and Patras Science Park.

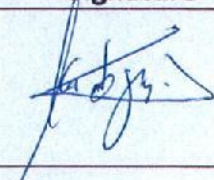

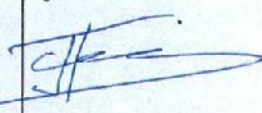

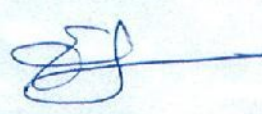

ISI presented the overall project and objectives and focused on the need to build a Transnational Strategic Research Agenda in the SEE area. The main points of the discussion are the following

- the Region of Western Greece has elaborated a local consensus in the framework of the Regional Innovation Pole and the Regional Technology Platform, that could be useful for the objectives of I3E
- the Regional Technology Platform of Western Greece Strategic Research Agenda builds on four axes: Industrial Information and Communication Systems, Industrial Automation, Embedded Systems and Security of Information and Communication Systems. It thus, is quite relevant to the I3E SRA and could be utilised as a result of local consensus in the Region of Western Greece
- the Regional Innovation Pole presents a Good Practice related to the support of innovation and several of its activities could be useful for I3E
- both the Regional Technology Platform and the Regional Innovation Pole of Western Greece have built networks of actors that are related with research and / or innovation. These networks could be also utilised in the framework of I3E
